ROBINSON RESENTS SLAP AT SUPERBAS

Insists His Men Won on Their Merits—Baseball World Aroused.

After Brooklyn had waited sixteen years for a National League baseball hampionship its hopes were finally realzed vesterday when Wilbert Robinson led the best pitching staff in the league and other accomplished guardians to vic tory over the New York Glants. But as is generally the case where unfortunate Brooklyn is concerned, there slight flaw in the final finding.

The fault does not lie with the Superbus, but rather with the opponents of the Brooklyn club-John J. McGraw's heretofore record smashing baseball ma- Cleveland Street Cars Collide: Sped On After Killing Long him. In an eleventh hour statement Medicaw accused his players of not doing heir best against the Dodgers. He as seried that the team was not a team but nine individual performers striving he against the other. He declared that adifferent playing by the members of the thants made the load of their opponents lighter.

Medraw, angry at rebellion among his subordinates, attacked the supreme honof the national pastime and prac-ly made charges against his hireare, which aroused more than a breath scandal to rest upon the heretofore fully guarded, virtuous sport. In heat of the moment McGraw said he ess through with the Giants and would sfuse to have any further dealings with
